"This year's honoree, Alan R. Parham, is very special to me," said Samuel Staten, Sr., Founder and Trustee of the Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust. "I have watched Alan grow from boyhood, through adolescence, young manhood and into the fine man, husband and father he has become. The son of my late friend and labor brother Woodrow "Woody" Parham, Alan is honoring his father's memory each day by the professional and caring way he tends to the members and retirees of the Laborers' District Council."

The mission of The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust is to provide a variety of services to the needy and otherwise underserved community members throughout the five county area of Philadelphia. This mission is achieved through a variety of fundraising events and activities. The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust illustrates the power of organized labor to make a difference in our community. The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust was known as The Laborers' District Council Charity Fund until 2011. The name of the charity was changed to honor Samuel Staten, Sr., the man who founded the LDC Charity Fund through a purely unselfish act of charity during his time as Business Manager of Laborers' Local 332 and of the Laborers' District Council of the Philadelphia Metropolitan Area and Vicinity. Now retired, Mr. Staten, Sr. continues to work with the charity's Board of Directors to raise funds to assist a wide range of charitable organizations.
