The mission of The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust (formerly Laborer's District Council Charity Fund), a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, is to provide a variety of services to the needy and otherwise underserved community members throughout the five county area of Philadelphia. The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust was known as The Laborer's District Council Charity Fund until 2011. The name of the charity was changed to honor Samuel Staten, Sr., the man who founded the LDC Charity Fund through a purely unselfish act of charity during his time as Business Manager of Laborers' Local 332 in addition to Secretary Treasurer of the Laborers' District Council of the Philadelphia Metropolitan Area and Vicinity. Now retired from the Laborers' District Council and Laborers' Local 332, Samuel Staten, Sr. continues to work with the charity's Board of Directors to raise funds to assist a wide range of charitable organizations that provide a variety of services to the needy and otherwise underserved community members throughout the five county area of Philadelphia. The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust believes in the principles that unionism was founded on: a fair day's pay for a fair day's work, and worker's rights. The Trust also believes that next-generation unionism must vigorously pursue workers' rights based on management and union cooperation and the advancement of member education.
